INTANGIBLE TAX BILL KILLED BY VOTE OF SENATE

Effort Made to Reconsider the Vote Was Voted Down and Measure Laid Aside

DEADLOCK ON AMOUNT OF THE TAX ON OIL

Senate Wants Two and the House
Three Per Cent and Action
Is Delayed

AUSTIN, March 8.—The action of the senate in killing the Patman intangible tax bill was made final when a motion to postpone action indefinitely and return the bill to the house was adopted by a vote of 17 to 12. An attempt to reconsider the vote by which the bill was killed was made on motion of Senator Strong. An effort to have the measure laid on the table subject to call also was defeated.

While debating the attempt to reconsider the Patman bill, Senator Bailey charged that certain members of the senate were holding up final action on the measure as a "whip" over other members in considering revenue measures.

The senate concurred in house amendments to the Holbrook bill creating the State insurance department. The amendments increased the salaries of the deputy insurance commissioner and chief liquidating agent to $5,000.

The senate refused to concur in house amendments to the Fairchild bill permitting the organization of trust companies.

Allison Mayfield. A resolution introduced by Senator Cousins in honor of the late Allison Mayfield was unanimously adopted.

To Purchase Spanish Capitol. Senator Ridgeway today introduced a bill proposing an appropriation of $75,000 to purchase the ancient government palace property at San Antonio, which was used as the capitol of the ancient province of Texas.

Senate Bills Advanced.

The Wood bill covering deficiency appropriations amounting to approximately $450,000 was passed to third reading, as were the following senate measures: Murphy, prohibiting obtaining of confessions by threats; Bowers, regulating county executive committees; Parr, sheep and cattle scalies bill; and Floyd, changing the beginning of the fiscal year for counties from December to January 1.

Codification of Statutes. The Patman bill, providing for a commission to codify State statutes was passed finally on suspension of rules by a vote of 107 to 4. The measure has received the approval of Governor Neff, it is said, although he vetoed a bill on the same subject previously.

Highway Commissioners. The house finally passed the Ridgeway senate bill increasing the terms of highway commissioners to six years after the measure had first failed of engrossment.

The Ridgeway bill attracted considerable debate and several attempts to amend. Following the defeat of an amendment by Representative Pope to leave the question of salaries of the commissioners to the appropriation committee the bill failed to be engrossed by a vote of 56 to 62. After reconsidering the bill the Pope amendment was accepted and the measure was passed.

The senate bill carried the salaries at $2500.

Circuit Criminal Trial Judges. The house refused to postpone indefinitely action on the governor's proposal to establish circuit criminal trial judges and set it as a special order for Saturday afternoon.

Conference Refused. The house also refused to grant the senate request for a free conference on the senate bill to provide another assistant attorney general for the court of criminal appeals and increase the present attorney's salary.

House Killed Witt's Bill. The Witt anti-technicality senate bill, which sought to prohibit reversal of court decisions on mere technical points, was killed by the house today, when it refused to finally pass the measure by a vote of 59 to 70.

B. and G. N. Bill Filed. Governor Neff today filed with the secretary of State to become effective without his signature, the Witt bill authorizing the Beaumont and Great Northern railroad to purchase and operate the Trinity.

Electrocution Adopted as Official Method in Texas

AUSTIN, March 8.—The house late today finally passed the Thomas bill to substitute electrocution for hanging in capital punishment cases in Texas by a vote of 101 to 19. Final passage came on suspension of the rules after a long and heated debate on the measure.

Attempt to strike out the enacting clause of the Thomas bill and to postpone action on it were made but both failed. Discussing the bill Representative Rogers of Ferris county declared "the old time method is good enough for me," and strongly opposed the passage.

Under terms of the Thomas bill all persons sentenced to hang would be electrocuted at the State penitentiary between midnight and 6 o'clock in the morning. This feature is to prevent the gathering of crowds to witness the electrocution.

Senate Debates Bill for Removal County Officials

AUSTIN, March 8.—Statements that the so-called quo-warranto house bill may lead to a revolution in Texas, if passed by the legislature and that it is a measure of autocracy, were made by members of the senate while debating the Patterson bill this afternoon. The bill was discussed during the entire afternoon session, without final action.

The Patterson bill seeks to authorize the filing of quo-warranto proceedings by the attorney general at the instance of the governor for the removal of sheriffs and other peace officers, who, in the belief of the governor and the attorney general fail or refuse to enforce the criminal statutes. It passed the house after a long and heated debate.

Opposition to the measure centered on the provisions which would permit the trial of officers in the district courts adjoining the counties in which they reside. Considerable opposition also was expressed on the principles of the bill in that suits could be filed at the request of the governor.

It was said the governor could withhold the information obtained as a basis of the suit and the act could be made the tool of political aspirants.

Charges were made during the debate that attorneys general would be the most concerned in seeking the passage of the bill. The bill possibly will be considered further tomorrow. Holbrook bitterly attacked the proposition.

During the discussion, Governor Neff and several members of the State courts were in the senate chamber.

PALESTINE HOLDS THE WHIP HAND ON PLAN

Demands General Offices and General
Shops as Price for the Passage of the Bill

AUSTIN, March 8.—The Stuart bill to authorize the consolidation of the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad with the International-Great Northern and four other Texas lines was again reported favorably by the senate committee on State affairs late today after considering the measure briefly.

As reported, the bill carried an amendment which would prohibit the consolidating lines from removing from Palestine general shops of the International-Great Northern.

No attempt to pass the St. Louis-San Francisco Railroad consolidation bill will be made until officials of the International-Great Northern, one of the merger lines, have answered requests on the part of a group of legislators to settle the strike on that line, members of the house stated today.

A movement to block passage of the merger bill unless railroad officials agreed to carry out an alleged oral agreement with union strikers was launched yesterday. Representative LeSturgeon of San Antonio announced.

Holding up the Frisco. The Frisco consolidation bill is being held up in an effort to make it the vehicle for selfish benefits.

Palestine insists that the Frisco must maintain general offices and general shops at that point; and is in a position to compel attention to the demands or to have the bill delayed if it will never get to the floor of the house in time for action.

The railroad unions involved in the recent strike, unable to interest anyone in securing a termination of the strike which will enable the men who stick by the unions to return to work, seek to compel the Frisco to agree to return the strikers on the International.

There are numerous representatives in Austin from towns which will benefit by enactment of the bill; and these realize that Palestine has the whip hand and the Texas officials of the road have no authority to do any trading; hence there is a deadlock which makes it probable that the bill will be passed.

Paris was represented at the hearing by W. W. Warner and Harry T. Warner, who found that a majority of the members of both house and senate are favorable to the proposal but the fact that the legislature is to adjourn next Wednesday gives the trading members all the advantage. And they prefer to kill the plan rather than to surrender one iota of their demands.

NEGRO RAN AMUCK AND WOUNDED FIVE

Fired Upon Members of the Family as One of Them
Lay Dying

SPENCER, Tenn., March 8.—Heavily armed with a shotgun and two pistols, Lewis Douglas, negro farm hand and ex-convict, at an early hour this morning attempted to wipe out the family of Ernest Hoston, Tennessee secretary of State. He is believed to be close by the press by a posse of five hundred armed citizens near Doyle in White county, approximately 10 miles from this city.

The wounded include Sam Hoston, brother of the secretary of State; Mrs. George Hoston, his mother; Mrs. P. D. Shapero, a sister; Tullis Froelgen, a boy living on the place; and another person as yet unidentified. All are expected to recover. They were shot at 3 a. m. after Douglas had been caught stealing from the Hoston corn crib.

Mrs. Sam Hoston, at whose bedside the Hoston family was gathered, died during the shooting. She was at the point of death when the negro ran amuck and shot down each member of the family as he or she came to the door in answer to his hail.

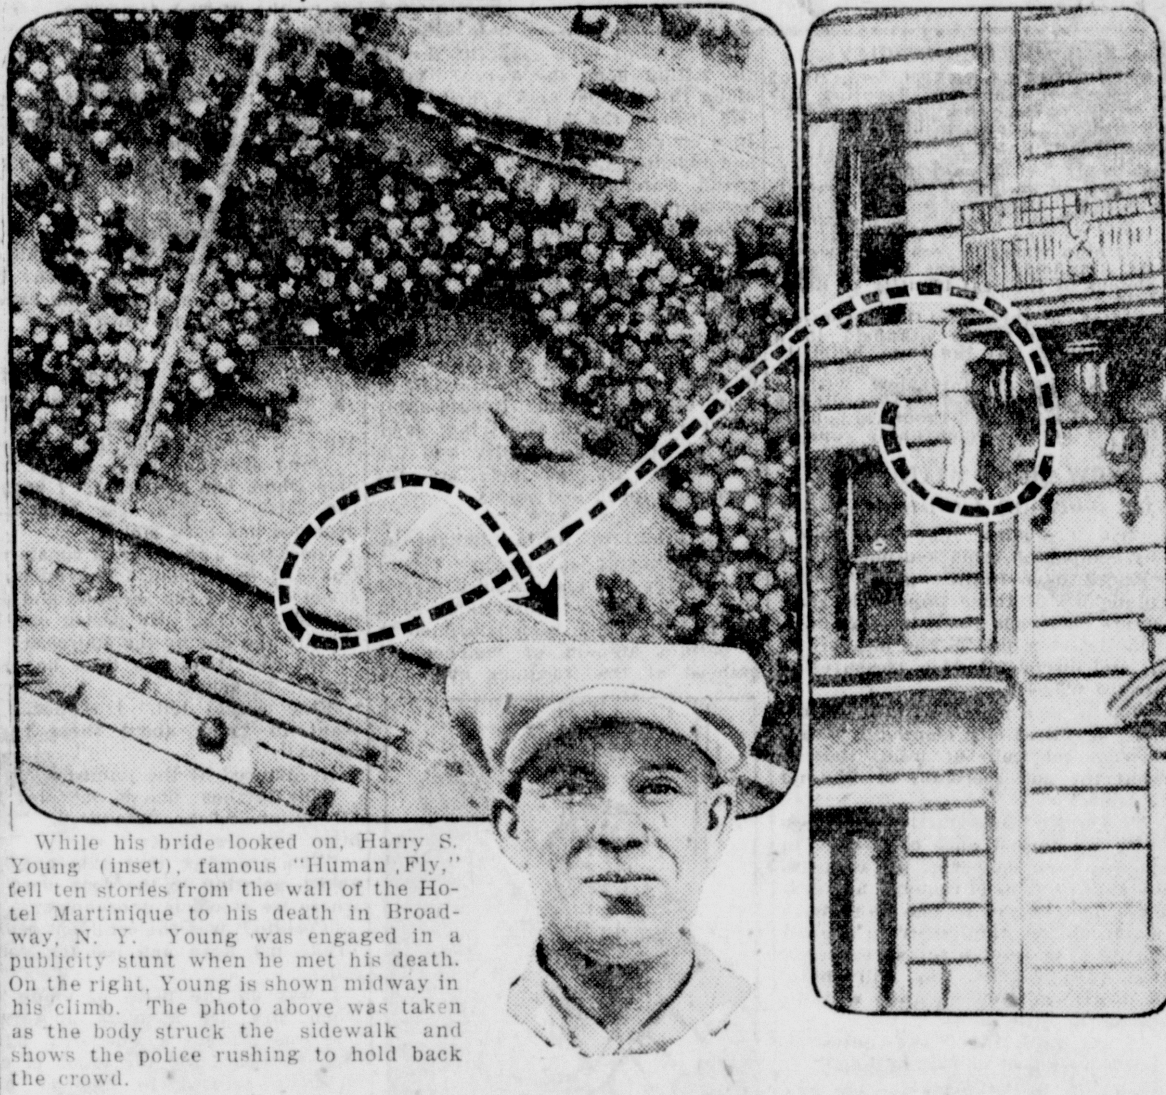

OKLAHOMA CITY, March 8.—Using a pistol, a knife, a razor and an ax, A. B. Bowen, negro, killed his wife, Rhody Bowen; fatally wounded his stepdaughter, Nancy Pickens, and then killed himself here late today.

The slaying occurred at the home of the negroes following the suit for a divorce by the wife of Bowen.

THREE POLICEMEN SHOT TO DEATH

Tragedies Grew Out of Prohibition Enforcement in Georgia
Towns

ATLANTA, March 8.—Three policemen were shot and killed and one more prohibition officer was wounded in Lulu and Blackshear, two South Georgia towns late today according to reports received here. Silas Martin and Jack Ryan, marshals at Lulu, were shot and killed by Robert Hope, a mail carrier, and I. C. Brooks was slain in a battle with S. I. Sharp at Blackshear, prohibition officer J. E. Monroe, being wounded.

Reports from Lulu said that Hope had been placed under arrest by Martin and was being taken to jail when the shooting commenced. Martin and Ryan were said to have been killed instantly. Hope surrendered to the sheriff.

Brooks was killed in a battle when he and the prohibition officer attempted to arrest Sharpe at his home near Blackshear. The officers had a warrant charging Sharpe with a violation of the prohibition law. Monroe was badly wounded. Sharpe, reports said, made his escape.

FRANKLINTON, La., March 8.—A special session of the Washington grand jury today prepared to begin an investigation into the slaying of Robert Crain and Wiley Pierce, deputy sheriffs, by alleged moonshiners last Saturday after they had arrested two men near a still. The officers had previously destroyed.

LONDON, March 8.—Prime Minister Bonar Law stated in the house of commons today that an official notice at Angora, relayed by the British high commissioner at Constantinople, was to the effect that the draft treaty presented at Lausanne was considered unsuitable, but that the grand national assembly by a great majority had given authority to continue the peace negotiations.

PARIS, March 8.—Dispatches from Constantinople declare that the Turkish grand national assembly at Angora has given full powers to Foreign Minister Ismet Pasha to continue negotiations with the allies on the financial, economic and judicial peace terms which the Turks have not accepted. The assembly, it is stated, endorsed the concessions made by Ismet at Lausanne.

Anderson in Federal court today upon seventeen of the eighteen men who have entered pleas of guilty to charges of robbing the Krogman distillery at Tell City, Ind., in 1921.

Prosperity Dinner Fixed For Next Tuesday Evening

At the regular meeting of the executive board of the Chamber of Commerce Thursday morning, the secretary reported that J. T. Desmolineux, representing the United States Chamber of Commerce, of Washington, D. C., was in the city and would address the Lions Club Thursday and the Rotary Club on Friday, explaining the purpose and objects of the organization and telling of the wonderful results achieved from its activities. His membership, it was stated, was a condition of the organization of any consequence in the United States.

The cotton mill committee reported having a tentative proposition from the Cannon-Roberts interests, who were in Paris recently stating that provided they could take $75,000 stock in a mill in this city costing $400,000; the mill to be built under their supervision with all new machinery, also provided that they have supervision of the mill for three years for which they would charge $5,000 a year, and that they control the distribution of the goods for the standard commission. The rest of the capital to be furnished by local citizens and the directors and officers to be elected by the Paris stockholders.

The Cannon-Roberts combination are among the largest textile manufacturers in the country and are of the very best reputation.

The committee has not come to a definite conclusion in the matter and would be glad to have suggestions from any of our people who feel an interest in the matter. The secretary reported that at a meeting of some of the leading bankers and business men held recently it was decided to call the attention of the people to the many advantages of the city of Paris for industrial enterprises and to make some plans to bring such enterprises to Paris and thereby increase the circulation of money by creating weekly payrolls which would be spent with our merchants. Therefore the Chamber of Commerce has issued a call for the

Uncle Joe Left Washington After Lifetime Service

WASHINGTON, March 8.—A quiet little man with a gray beard and a slouch hat flattened so as to fit into a pocket got out of an automobile at the station today, walked slowly through the crowded waiting room and boarded a train for Danville, Ill.

One or two remarked "there goes Uncle Joe," the train drew out and with scarcely a ripple the bustle of the railway terminal went along as usual.

The incident marked the final passing from official life of Joseph Cannon, who came to Washington fifty years ago to begin his legislative career. His departure was almost as unheralded as was his arrival during the days when the civil war was as fresh in the memories of the people as the world war is today.

As though he were brushing aside all of the memories of the long years during which he had helped to direct the destinies of the nation as a member of congress, Uncle Joe hardly cast a backward glance at the capitol as he left for his home.

MUCH UNREST AMONG UNEMPLOYED HOSTS

Many of the Coal Miners Are Being Taken Away Under Orders from Berlin

EBERSWALDE, Germany, Mar. 8.—There is a merry little wireless battle going on between the Eiffel tower in Paris with its high power wireless apparatus and the Lorenz broadcasting station here in Eberswalde. The latter has been distributing concert programs to the Central European countries regularly twice a day. Now it is beginning to receive complaints from abroad, particularly from Holland and Switzerland, declaring the transmission of some concert numbers is so disturbed that they are unintelligible.

Investigation has revealed that stories read from the works of the Bavarian humorist Roda Roda, as well as a phonograph record giving Isolde's death scene from Wagner's "Tristan and Isolde" went through as clear as a bell and yet whenever "Deutschland Uber Alles" was put on it sounded at the receiving end like a conversation at the tower of Babel.

The Germans claim that the Eiffel tower keeps a close watch on the programs and that whenever it finds anything distasteful it immediately tunes up its sending apparatus to the same wave length as that used by the Lorenz station and fires away with a counter program. Consequently neither the German nor the French numbers are intelligible.

The same thing has happened, according to the Germans, to news sent out about the Ruhr.

Careless Among Unemployed.

ESSEN, March 8.—Meetings of the unemployed are being held at various points, according to the French in protest against the German system of paying strike funds and there is much unrest among the thousands of miners and factory workers now idle.

At Dortmund five thousand unemployed met and gave notice to the municipality that the strike pay of 2000 marks daily was insufficient and that unless the sum was increased they would go to work for the French and Belgians.

Those in charge of the payment of the funds say it is impossible to increase the allowance.

Coal Miners Quit Work.

ESSEN, March 8.—The German coal miners in the Ruhr are gradually being dismissed from work, according to the French authorities, who declared 2000 were discharged yesterday from the mines in the Recklinhausen district alone. It is assumed by the French that these dismissals are part of the German plan to reduce the coal output gradually to a minimum as part of the passive resistance program.

May Quit Resistance.

ESSEN, March 8.—The German Association of Railroad Workers in the Ruhr has decided at a mass meeting, the French learn, to send a delegation to Berlin for a conference with Chancellor Cuno, to whom they will present a demand that strike funds be assured in cases of unemployment in the future. If this assurance is not forthcoming immediately it will be recommended that the railroad workers break their united front of resistance.

Essen Isolated.

BERLIN, March 8.—Essen and Duisburg have been isolated from rail communication with the rest of the Ruhr, according to the Berliner Tageblatt. The railway station at Langendreer, one of the largest switching points in the Ruhr, a few miles east of Bochum, has been occupied, as well as that of Wattenscheid, to the west of Bochum, and the railroad line from Dortmund to Bochum to Essen is completely blocked.

Coal Mine Occupied.

ESSEN, March 8.—The French have occupied part of the Bismarck coal mine near Recklinhausen because the Germans refused to load it. The men closed down all the loading machinery in protest against the occupation.

GODS PEOPLE—My people shall dwell in a peaceable habitation, and in sure dwellings, and in quiet resting places.—Isaiah 32: 18.

More Bureaus Created.

To date the legislature has created three new bureaus and has abolished none nor reduced the number by consolidation.

There is a distinct trend toward commissions and bureaus and Texas now has somewhere in the neighborhood of 33 of them of varied sort and created for various administrative functions.

Some of these bureaus are for the purpose of raising revenue; some are for the enforcement of penal statutes having to do either with human or animal activity; and some are purely ornamental.

The insurance department was getting along very well as an adjunct of the banking bureau; but there has been divorce and that will mean an additional bureau. Instead of the deputy commissioner and three or four clerks with part of the time one of the stenographers, the bureau will now have a salaried commissioner, two or three stenographers and a largely increased force of clerks.

But with the new bureau the fire rating bureau is to be kept intact and no part of the force is to be taken into the new division.

The rate making board meets every week to say what interest the banks shall pay for the State's money held on deposit—a task requiring maybe an hour and heretofore performed by the present officials of the State without any cost.

State's Business Is Secondary.

According to the press reports and they are usually most accurate—the business of the State was held up by certain members of the house because the senate had refused to confirm the nomination of a member of a board.

To serve partisan ends, a sufficient number of members of the house were perfectly willing to permit the interest of the State to suffer while they disciplined the senate and permitted the legislative business to await on the matter of one confirmation.

Which is the sort of disregard of public interests which has served in large measure to bring the legislature into contempt in the eyes of the people of Texas.

BEGIN HERE TODAY
SIR NORMAN GREY, formerly of Scotland Yard, is devoting his time to tracking down an arch criminal known to him as MICHAEL SATEY.

JANET SCALE, maid in Satey's cottage, is in love with her master. She shoots down a police officer who tracks Michael to his abode. Sir Norman meets Satey at the golf club where Satey is known as Mr. Standfield. Grey becomes suspicious of the real identity of Standfield.

After a three-months' vacation, Sir Norman meets Standfield in a hotel lobby. At the same hotel, to humor an insurance company, Grey has an interview with a South American widow regarding a policy of a hundred thousand pounds carried on her remarkable record of pearls.

NOW GO ON WITH STORY
Sir Norman Continues

"He is quaint, that little man," my companion remarked once, as he glanced over toward us. "He reminds me of those impossible characters one reads about in magazines, who detect crime for the pleasure of it, and discover hidden treasures in absurd places."

"He is, as a matter of fact," I told her, "a retired city merchant with a passion for golf—at least, that is what the golf secretary at Woking told me."

The music was seductive, and presently we danced once or twice. In the ballroom, however, my companion showed signs of renewed nervousness. The fingers of one hand were nearly all the time straying around her neck, as though to assure herself that the necklace was still there. Presently she drew me away with an apologetic little laugh.

"I am quite mad," she confessed, "but I have a fit of nerves tonight. I am going upstairs early. Do you mind?"

"Of course not," I told her. "Let me see you to the lift."

"I am going to ask you to do more than that," she said as we crossed the hall. "I am going to ask you to come up to my sitting room and escort my maid down to the office when she takes my necklace there. As a reward you can come back afterward, if you will, and have a whisky and soda with me."

I rang for the lift, and we ascended together to the fourth floor. She handed me her key and I unlocked the door of her charming little salon. She pointed to the evening paper and an easy chair.

"Please make yourself comfortable for five minutes," she begged, looking back from the threshold of the inner room. "I shall just let Annette help me out of my gown. Then I will give her the jewel-case and she shall call for you."

She nodded and disappeared. I stood for a moment looking after her. The door was closed softly. I heard her call to her maid in the farther apartment.

Those next few seconds seemed to beat themselves out in my brain, charged with a strange and almost amazing significance. I am convinced that I acted from impulse. There was nothing definite in my mind when from behind that closed door I conceived the sudden idea which prompted my action. I crossed the door of the sitting room and opened the door which led on to the corridor. There was no one in sight, and it seemed to me that fewer of the electric lights were lit than usual. I stood there, every nerve of my body riveted upon an attempt at dual listening. I listened for the return of Mrs. De Mendoza and I listened for the opening of either of her doors. Presently what I deemed might happen, came to pass. The door of her bedroom in a line with the one behind which I was lurking opened, I peered through the crack.

Annette the maid, a trim, dark figure, had crossed the threshold. She stood for a moment listening.

THE EMPTY JEWEL CASE TOLD ITS OWN STORY. THE MAID MOANED TO HERSELF.

doors of the bedrooms opposite. There were three of them between where I was and the turn to the lift. Suddenly the farthest door was opened, softly but not stealthily. A figure appeared, and leaning down, drew a pair of shoes upon the mat. I suppose that I was dimly visible in the semi-gloom, for the man suddenly left off whistling and turned in my direction.

"Hullo, there!" he called out. "I drew from my pocket the little electric torch which I had been keeping in readiness, and flashed it upon him. He stared at me in amazement. The maid, with her fingers still to her throat, had recovered sufficiently to sit up, and was leaning with her back to the wall, gazing white and moaning to herself. The empty jewel-case told its own story.

"Jerusalem!" Mr. Standfield exclaimed breathlessly. "A robbery?" "Ring your bell," I directed. He disappeared into his room for a moment, leaving the door open. Presently he reappeared.

"I've rung all three," he announced. "Then the wires have been cut," I answered, pointing to the register lower down, which had not moved. "Go to the lift and see if you can get anyone."

He was gone for about half a minute. I leaned down toward the girl, who was beginning to cry. "Did you see who attacked you?" I asked.

"No!" she sobbed. "All the lights went out suddenly. Someone came up from behind. I never heard a sound—just the clutch at my throat and the choking."

"Why did you not wait for me or go by the lift?" I demanded.

"She looked a little puzzled. 'I never go by the lift,' she replied. 'Why not?'"

GREAT PROGRAM FOR THE LIONS

Excellent Talks, Good Singing and a Fine Recitation Were Features

One of the best balanced and most heartily enjoyed programs that the Lions have listened to in many months was presented at the regular meeting yesterday. Tol Boswell, chairman of the group that had the week's program in charge, had a fine array of talent on hand.

The program, opened with a piano solo by Miss Enid Morgan, which was rendered in truly artistic style, in which the young lady displayed unmistakable ability—so much so that she was forced to respond to a most hearty and sincere encore.

Little Miss Eugenia Ezell, aged 5, next obliged with a reading, and this little tot made a most decided hit. She had to stand on a chair to be seen, but not to be heard as her enunciation was clear and perfect, and she exhibited ability to a marked degree.

Mrs. W. Hoyt Braselton, always a big favorite with the Lions, and wherever she goes, rendered some of her delightful vocal selections, and as usual the Lions were both to have her stop. Mrs. Braselton possessed an unusually sweet voice, coupled with real ability, a fact that is well known in Paris.

E. J. Des Moines of Washington, D. C., a representative of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, was next introduced and spoke at some length of the history, purpose and accomplishments of this organization. He is thoroughly familiar with his subject and is a speaker of real ability.

John Sturgeon, a native product, was next on the program, and had as his subject "Law Enforcement." He astonished his hearers by some of the facts and figures he presented, and his enforcement of law in the United States. We, as a people, have more laws and less law enforcement than any other civilized nation on the globe, he asserted and this is not confined to any particular locality. It is as much true in Lamar county as in any other section, and facts and figures bear out the statement.

Without public opinion no law can be enforced, and its enforcement lies wholly in the hands of the citizenship. Without the force of public opinion all laws go for naught, no matter how carefully worded or how well intended. Sturgeon made a talk that caused a lot of good citizens to scratch their heads, and he stuck to the letter of the truth. It was a really wonderful talk, and at its conclusion he was showered with congratulations.

During the session a committee was appointed to go to the meeting of the State Lions club at Waco on April 11, and an effort will be made to stage the 1924 meeting in Paris. The Rotary club pulled off a conference of that kind and in a manner that reflected credit upon the city. The Lions are of the opinion that they can do equally as well and will make an attempt to corral the 1924 convention. Those who will go to Waco will be the Lions quartet composed of Sturgeon, Wood, Bassano and Lawrence; E. M. Rogers and J. A. Gill. Others expected to go are J. O. Pirtle, C. F. Collins, J. W. De-weese and possibly others.

Next Thursday the Lions will have as their guests the Girl Scouts and a big program will be put on by this organization. The program will be announced later, being now in the hands of a committee of Girl Scout workers. Yesterday every Lion present was given a card with a number on it. This number being called, a Girl Scout was assigned to the Lion holding the number opposite the young lady's name, and he will be expected to escort her to the luncheon.

It is planned to make this a big occasion and a record breaking attendance is looked for. All Lions not present yesterday will be expected to be on hand. This promises to be a fine large meeting, and one that will be enjoyed by the Girl Scouts, as well as their friends, the Lions.

The Friday Friendship Club.
The Friday Friendship club will have its meeting this afternoon at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. J. W. Love, 189 West Kauffman street.

Postponement of American Literature Club.

The meeting of the American Literature club which was to have been held yesterday afternoon at the home of Miss Mamie Coleman, was postponed and further announcement will be made later.

The Twentieth Century Club.
The Twentieth Century club met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. B. Glass, for a lesson of Eugene O'Neill's drama, "Gold."

Mrs. Conway gave a sketch of the dramatist's life. Mrs. Patsy reviewed his play, "The Straw," and Mrs. Harper "The Emperor Jones." Round table discussions of his other plays were especially interesting.

The hostess served a delicious salad and an ice.

Mrs. Clyde Short will be the next hostess.

A Birthday Party.

Master Joe Billingsley celebrated his fourth birthday on Monday afternoon with an enjoyable party at which twenty-five guests were present.

The time was pleasantly spent in playing many games and much diversion was created by the cutting of the lovely birthday cake. Little Miss Dorothy Wood found the button, Master Jack Wood found the ring, Joe Jr., the thimble and the dime went to Mrs. Sam Payne, Joe's grandmother.

After the cutting of the cake, the guests enjoyed the cream course served with it.

Bars of chocolate were given as favors to each small guest.

Church Grounds Committee.

On Tuesday afternoon the church grounds committee of the Civic League met at the home of the chairman, Mrs. D. H. Scott, and representatives from the various churches of the city.

The opening prayer was given by Miss Young and the business of the day was taken up. Each church had a report of the year's work accomplished.

A summary of the grading of the church grounds for 1922 and some suggestions for this year's work were given, showing the real interest in improving and beautifying the church premises.

Real co-operation was manifested during the past year and in point of upkeep no more could have been asked. Four churches received perfect records in the report, and the reward of $10, given to the church showing the most improvement, was presented to the Central Presbyterian church for the permanent features.

The committee recommends the planting of trees and shrubs. The Lombardy poplar is especially suitable as it is quick of growth, tall, slender and well suited to church architecture.

Another recommendation was that a circle of unsodded ground be left about each tree, and the grading committee was instructed to note this in reports.

Color schemes for the annuals have been adopted by several of the churches and it is hoped that this plan will be generally followed.

The award of $10 is offered as usual this year.

SPRING-SUMMER MODES SHOWN

Burton-Peel Style Exhibit With Living Models a Great Success

Attended by an audience conservatively estimated at one thousand people, the style promenade at Burton-Peel last evening was a huge success, and Parisians were given the opportunity of seeing on living models some of the hand-somest and most alluring of the spring and summer modes.

An immense crowd was gathered in front of the store long before the doors were opened, which was half an hour before the first number was given. During this time, and for the entire promenade, the Grand Theatre band gave popular and appropriate selections.

A long raised promenade, white-covered, was erected entirely across the second floor, the home of Burton-Peel's wonderful departments for women's wear ad ceiling lights hung with festoons of pink flowers gave a rosy glow to the ensemble.

Chairs were placed for 400, but hundreds of others stood up during the entire evening in order to witness the beautiful display. The approval of the audience was manifest in frequent and spontaneous applause as some especially attractive or striking costume was displayed by a graceful girl or handsome matron.

Showing wee little girls' things were Blandene Neatherly, Eugenia Ezell, Mary Lummus, Anne Williams, Katherine Duncan, and Mary Travis Bennett. For the girls' garments were Jane and Ruth Wright, Alice Fairfax, Ruth Knight, Mary Farrell, Eleanor Scott, Margaret and Myrtle Ezell, and Olive Hunter. Clara James, Alice Boyd, Mary Collins, Mildred Jones, Maud Blard and Ruth Marchbanks displayed the junior models.

The misses' and women's frocks and suits were worn by Misses Joe Williams, Burnett Timlin, Neville Brooks, Heaton, Duncan, and Homer, and Misses Mignon House, Homer Johnson, Flora Connor, Mary Upton, Elizabeth Williams, Mary Collins, Grace and Ruth Revelle, Katherine Jones, Katherine Brooks, Eugenia Griffith, Henrietta Warren and Lucile Weaver.

Miss Warren, in a beautiful draped gown of satin française in Lanvin green (a dark jade), with a wide picture hat of black maling, and carrying a long green staff, represented "Miss Style," and made a most alluring figure of the legendary lady.

Children's organdies in dainty shades, short of waist and sleeve, with hand-work for trimming were shown by the little tots.

Embroidered ratines and plume or linen trimmed gingham, and dainty frocks of taffeta or crepes were the models for girls from seven to fourteen years.

The juniors wore street frocks, sport dresses and severe little suits. Printed crepes, taffeta and suitings were the chief materials used.

Two-piece Beller suits, and the popular three-piece suit were of two-cords, poret, thistle-dew (a silk and wool mixture), and roshanara crepe, in the ever popular navy, and beige, made up with the new long skirt, and the jaquette coat—long and full; but gathered in a close-fitting band about the hips. One collar was made of narrow black grosgrain ribbon stitched together, a beige suit was trimmed in green and embroidered with rust-colored radia, and many were elaborately embroidered, while still others were severely plain. Gray, sand or black shoes and hose were worn with these, and new bags, gloves to match the shoes, and a colorful poke or brimmed hat completed the picture.

Mayer tailored dresses—French import models—were clever street frocks, and the silk sport dresses and paisley capes were marvels of color. The basque waist, long bouffant skirt, puffed sleeves, berthas of various shapes, plaited panels and two-toned girdles distinguished both afternoon and dinner dresses of flat crepe materials, cretons, and embroidered sets, in paisley designs or Malay brown, Lanvin, orchid, rust, steel grey, and black and white. Black and white is a favorite and effective combination.

The sport suits were of tweed, knitted materials, frou-frou and basket-weave, and ranged from Tuxedo sweaters and tailored skirts to the golfer's knickers. Sport hats to match, and wool hose and brogan oxfords were worn.

The wraps were of flat crepe, crepe back satin, marvella and marcel, with collars of monkey fur or self material, and self-color of contrasting linings.

The hats for the afternoon and evening were poke shapes or Watteau effects of Milan, leghorn, hair, lace and chiffon, with flat flowers, ostrich, fruit and lace trimming. The popular colors were almond green, orchid, fuchsia, strawberry, and washball and tile blue.

The all-white frocks and sport clothes for summer completed the display, and gave a forecast of the white costume's coming popularity. Canton crepe was the popular material here, and it was made up variously with lace, accordion-plaited collars or panels, and bead ornaments.

The display was the most complete and effective showing of women's and girls' garments ever shown in the city and Burton-Peel are to be congratulated upon the entire affair, and the credit it reflects upon the firm as an up-to-the-minute establishment.

Paris Churches to Take Religious Census.

A committee composed of Revs. F. L. Wear, T. L. Huffstutler and J. Leslie Pinnell was appointed at the last meeting of the Ministerial Alliance to formulate plans for the taking of a religious census in Paris.

The committee has decided to district the city and assign a distributed to each of the churches represented by the ten ministers in the alliance.

A secretary has been employed to tabulate the results and give to each church the names of those expressing preference for that church.

Each minister is asked to appoint a captain and ten or twelve canvassers to meet the committee at 2:30 next Sunday afternoon at the Central Presbyterian church for further instructions.

Methodist Protestant Church

The choir of the Methodist Protestant church will have a rehearsal tonight of the Easter songs. We are anxious to meet 75 young people at the church at this time. May we count on you? There was a good attendance on Wednesday night; let's keep it growing.

Central Church Night.

A delightful lunch was the opening of an interesting church night service at Central Presbyterian church on Wednesday evening, followed by the devotional service, consisting of prayers and hymns.

After the devotional the departmental work was begun.

Miss McGuire had charge of the boy and girl work. The radio work was under direction of Ed Lowery.

Rufus Scott, Jr., conducted the Bible study by the young people, while the lecture based on "New Tasks for Old Churches," was led by Rev. F. L. Wear.

The attendance was unusually good and each one present entered heartily into all parts of the service.

One of the features of the evening was an interesting talk by Walter Munroe on the "Value of Little Things."

Special musical numbers were given by Mmes. H. C. Bearden, Frean Grimes and Miss Elizabeth McGuire.

The Ministerial Alliance.

At the meeting of the Ministerial Alliance of the city Monday morning, a committee composed of Rev. F. L. Wear, Rev. T. L. Huffstutler and Rev. J. Leslie Pinnell was appointed to make arrangements for taking a religious census of the city.

Rev. P. B. Knickerbocker, chairman of the committee on arrangements for the union evangelistic meeting during the week preceding Easter, announced that the morning services will be held every day except Saturday, at 10:45 at the Grand theater, the different pastors of the city speaking at successive services. Most of the churches will hold an evening service each day in their own buildings.

A resolution was passed pledging support to the revival at the First Christian church, which opens one week prior to the union meeting. The two will not interfere with each other in any respect.

DRAINED ROAD A DISTANCE OF THIRTY-FIVE MILES

Virgil Thompson, who is employed to do general road work in Commissioner Terry's precinct, states that he dragged highway No. 35 from Paris to Deport Wednesday and Thursday and that outside of the two little places the road is in good shape to travel.

One of the spots is at the Jerry Crook place and the other is near the McCuiston gin. A four mile team was used in dragging the road.

MUDBOUND AUTOMOBILE

Oxford, the lady from Eldorado, Ark., who spent the night in an automobile stuck in the mud between Brookston and Petty, while the rain was pouring down and who came back to Paris and left it here and took the train to Dallas, returned to Paris Thursday after the car to drive it on to Dallas, the roads having sufficiently dried.

CHARGED WITH SPEEDING ON THE HIGHWAY

O. J. Carter, county motorcycle officer, arrested a traveling salesman on Thursday four miles west of town, who was claimed to be exceeding the speed limit. He was traveling on the concrete highway. He did not deny the charge and paid a fine.

YOUR FRECKLES

Need Attention in March or Face
May Stay Covered

Now is the time to take special care of the complexion if you wish to look well for the rest of the year. The March winds have a strong tendency to bring out the freckles that may stay all summer unless removed. Now is the time to use Othine—double strength.

This preparation for the removal of freckles is usually so successful that it is sold by druggists under guarantee to refund money if it fails. Get an ounce of Othine—double strength, and even a few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the smaller freckles vanishing entirely.

IF SKIN BREAKS OUT AND ITCHES APPLY SULPHUR

Just the moment you apply Mentho-Sulphur to an itching, burning or broken out skin, the itching stops and healing begins, says a noted skin specialist. This sulphur preparation, made into a pleasant cold cream, gives such quick relief even to fiery eczema, that nothing has ever been found to take its place.

Because of its germ destroying properties, it quickly subdues the itching, cools the irritation and heals the eczema right up leaving a clear, smooth skin in place of the ugly eruptions, rash, pimples or roughness.

You do not have to wait for improvement. It quickly shows you can get a little jar of Rowley Mentho-Sulphur at any drug store.

Science of Modern Dentistry
Ends Pain and Unnecessary Suffering

Painless operation on the teeth, as perhaps you know from your own experience, depends largely on the man who uses the instrument. If he is careless, irritable, or unsympathetic, he will inflict pain; but careful, gentle and sympathetic manipulation eliminates unnecessary pain, in the most severe cases, and no pain whatever in ordinary cases. Science has done away with all this unnecessary pain. For that reason it is hard to understand why some people in this community should suffer agonies and lose natural teeth that could be saved with much less pain in a great deal less time and at a considerable less expense if brought to the attention of a competent dentist in time. It is possible, no matter how bad a state of neglect the mouth and teeth are in to bring them back to the highest standard of perfection. All work guaranteed. Prices reasonable. VARIED RECIPES DEL MONTE FOODS

England-Haynes Also Suggest
How to Open the Cans to Best Advantage

England-Haynes company, local distributors for the popular Del Monte canned foods have made it possible to give you an excellent recipe for the Del Monte products, which are probably the most popular of the canned goods.

Did you ever try to open a can of food? Did you punch a hole in the top of the can and wiggle the can opener around, leaving a jagged edge like a buzzsaw? Did you cut your hand and lose your temper over the poor offensive can?

If so, you will be interested to know, once and for all, that there is no need for all this extra effort and annoyance.

Just remove the label from the side of the can, until you can see the seam, which was made in forming the body of the can.

Lay the can on its side and puncture the can next to the seam with the point of the can opener, and next to the top of the can. Then set the can in an upright position, insert the can opener in the hole already made on the "side" of the can—working away from the seam until you have cut around the can.

You will then be able to turn back the entire top (or bottom). If the can be held firmly, any ordinary can opener will answer. By this method, there is no risk in cutting the hand, and you will have a smooth edge, over which the entire contents will pass without being cut or broken.

Now for the recipes.
Apricot Charlotte Russe—Arrange circles of stale cake in a greased baking dish. Mix 1 well beaten egg white with 1 tablespoon of sugar and one-half cup of Del Monte canned apricots pressed through a strainer. Heap egg mixture on circles of cake, sprinkle with coconut, and bake in a slow oven until a delicate brown. Serve with a custard sauce made from the egg yolk and 1 cup of sirup from the apricots.
Apricot Cereal Pudding—Make 1½ cups of mush of hominy grits, add ¾ cup (1-3 can) of Del Monte canned apricots, ½ teaspoon each of salt and cinnamon, 1 egg and ½ cup of sirup from the apricots. Pour into a greased pudding dish and bake in a slow oven 30 minutes.

Apricot Custard—Make a custard using 2 egg yolks, 2 cups of milk and ¼ teaspoon each of salt and nutmeg. Cool and add ¾ cup (1-3 can) of Del Monte canned apricots pressed through a strainer. Pour into a serving dish and cover with a meringue of 2 stiffly beaten egg whites and 2 tablespoons of sirup from the apricots.

Apricot Whip—Drain 1 cup of Del Monte canned apricots and press through a strainer, fold in 2 stiffly beaten whites, pour into a serving dish and chill. Serve with a custard sauce made from the egg yolks, ¾ cup of milk and ¼ cup of sirup from the apricots.

Frozen Apricots—Rub ¾ cup (1-3 can) of Del Monte canned apricots through the strainer. Cook 1 cup of sirup from the apricots, ¼ cup of water and ½ cup of sugar 5 minutes. Add apricots and freeze.

Peach Betty—Arrange 1 cup of bread crumbs and 1½ cups (2-3 can) of Del Monte canned sliced peaches which have been drained, in alternate layers in a greased baking dish, sprinkle each layer of peaches with sugar and a little cinnamon, dot with 2 tablespoons of butter, pour 2-3 cup of water over all and bake 35 minutes in a moderate oven.

Peach Blanc Manger—Mix 5 tablespoons of cornstarch and 3 tablespoons of sugar, 2½ cups of hot milk, stirring constantly, and cook in the double boiler 25 minutes. Add ¼ teaspoon of vanilla and pour into wet mold lined with ¾ cup (1-3 can) of Del Monte canned sliced peaches. Chill and serve with sirup from the peaches or with cream.

Peach Souffle—Arrange 1½ cup (2-3 can) of drained Del Monte canned sliced peaches in a greased baking dish. To 3 stiffly beaten egg whites add 1-16 teaspoon salt and ¼ cup of the peach sirup. Pour over the peaches and bake in a slow oven 30 minutes. Serve with custard sauce made from egg yolks and the remainder of sirup from the peaches.

Plum Pudding Sauce—Heat 1 cup of sirup from Del Monte canned egg or green grape plums, add 3 tablespoons of sugar and 1 tablespoon of cornstarch moistened with 2 tablespoons of cold water, boil 10 minutes and serve hot. If sirup from the De Luxe variety of plums is used, only 1 tablespoon of sugar will be necessary.

Cherry Fritters—Make a stiff cornmeal mush by adding ½ cup of white or yellow corn meal to 1 cup of boiling salted water, and 1 cup of sirup from Del Monte canned cherries. Boil for 5 minutes and cook in a double boiler 1 hour. Add 1 cup of the cherries, pitted, and pour into a wet loaf pan. When cold and firm cut in slices, roll in fine crumbs and brown in fat in a hot frying pan. Serve with cherry pudding sauce.

Cherry Pudding Sauce—Bring ½ cup each of sirup from Del Monte canned cherries and brown sugar to the boiling point. Add 1 tablespoon of cornstarch moistened with 2 tablespoons of cold water. Boil for 5 minutes, add the juice of 1 orange and serve.
Baked Eggs on Spinach—Put well seasoned, chopped Del Monte

KITCHEN CUPBOARD

By NELLIE MAXWELL

OVEREATING

IT SEEMS to be a habit. In season and out of season, in parks, at the races, even in the theater and on the trains, there is a continuous swallowing of pop, ice cream, candy, hot dogs and peanuts. On the trains the family is scarcely settled in their seats before the performance of eating begins. It seems to be largely a form of entertainment, for, at home or abroad, if one is lonely, bored or has nothing special to do he gets something to eat.

It is small wonder that we are a race of dyspeptics, and a marvel that children who are stuffed all the time are, by a gracious Providence, allowed to grow up.

The healthy and growing child needs food, and plenty of it, and at regular intervals, usually shorter intervals than the grownups, but the constant practice of chewing something all the time is a most reprehensible one.

Isn't what we know about this falling, for we all do realize it is a bad habit, and go right on doing it until the continuous fermentation of the stomach causes disturbances which can never be cured.

When we know something is the matter and we don't know what we eat; when stupid and cranky, we eat. The only variation made between the appetites of men and women is that men will further ruin their digestions with some drink or cigarettes. A woman who does not smoke or drink the various beverages may be equally sinful in the overindulgence of coffee and food.

It used to be considered "bad form" to eat in public unless it was a regular meal. Let us hope that some of the old-fashioned ideas of our grandmothers may be revived. It was also a shocking thing to see a man in company with a woman smoking; now both smoke in public eating houses, regardless of the nausea of people who could enjoy a meal if it could be served without a smoke screen.

During the war, when people tried to cut down on food, we all found ourselves better in every way. "Let us cease to do evil" and set a good example.

made with shredded coconut but your results will not be completely satisfactory unless the coconut you use is moist, fresh-keeping kind which retains the full, rich flavor of the nut.

Below are half a dozen excellent recipes which may be counted upon to give good results:

Luxury Fudge
3 cups sugar.
1 cup milk.
1 tablespoon butter.
8 marshmallows or 3 tablespoons marshmallow cream.
3-4 cup dates.
1-2 cup coconut.
Bring 1-1/2 cups of sugar and the milk to boiling point and allow to boil slowly. Melt the remainder of sugar in frying pan, stirring constantly until it becomes a golden brown syrup. Remove the sugar and the milk mixture from the fire and add syrup slowly. Add butter. Return to fire and cook it until it forms a soft ball when tested in cold water. Add marshmallows and beat until thick and creamy. Add dates and coconut and pour into greased pan. Allow to stand over night and cut into squares.

Coconut Brittle
1 cup sugar.
3-4 cup fresh keeping coconut.
Heat sugar in a frying pan, stirring constantly until it becomes a golden brown syrup. Remove from fire. Add coconut quickly and pour on bottom of inverted pan. The pan does not have to be greased. As it begins to harden, mark into squares.

Date and Coconut Candy
3 cups of sugar.
1 cup milk.
2 tablespoons syrup.
1 cup fresh-keeping coconut.
1-4 cup butter.
2 teaspoons almond extract.
1 package of dates.

Cook sugar, milk, syrup, butter and dates until the mixture forms a soft ball when tested in cold water. Remove from the fire, add coconut and flavoring and pour into a well greased pan. When cold enough to handle, put in a greased cloth and press into loaf.

Coconut Cones
1-2 cup molasses.
1-2 cup brown sugar.
1-1/2 cups fresh-keeping coconut.

Bring molasses and brown sugar slowly to the boiling point and add coconut and cook until coconut has absorbed almost all of the syrup, which will require about five minutes. Care must be taken to do this over a low fire, as the mixture will burn easily. Drop from a spoon on greased pans and shape into cones with a fork. Set aside until hard.

Potato Coconut Candy
1 medium sized potato.
2 cups sifted confectioners' sugar.
2 cups fresh-keeping coconut.
1 teaspoon vanilla extract.
Chocolate, melted.

Cook potato in boiling water until soft, then press through a sieve or vegetable ricer; there should be one-half cup of potato. When cool, add sugar, coconut and vanilla, working until well mixed. Press one inch thick into small bread pan, then spread top with a thin layer of bitter sweet or chocolate. When chocolate is firm, remove from pan and cut in small squares. Wrap each square in a waxed paper.

Seafoam Candy
2 cups brown sugar.
1-2 cup water.
1 egg white, beaten.
1-2 package fresh-keeping coconut.
1 pinch salt.
1-2 teaspoon vanilla extract.
1-2 package dates, stoned and chopped.

Cook sugar and water together until, when tested in cold water, it forms a soft ball. Beat white of egg vigorously all the time. Continue to beat until nearly cold, then add dates, coconut and vanilla. Drop by spoonfuls on a greased platter.

Baked Slice of Ham
Serves four to six. Preparation, 50 minutes. Two-pound slice of ham, one inch thick; 10 whole cloves; 1½ cups light brown sugar; ¼ dozen tart apples; ¼ cup water.

Method: Rub ½ cup sugar into the ham. Sprinkle with cloves. Place in baking pan and surround with the apples, peeled, cored and sliced in half crosswise. Sprinkle the remaining sugar over the apples, add the water to the pan and bake until tender (about 45 minutes). Serve on hot platter garnished with cress or parsley.

THE BOLL WEEVILS SENT COTTON DOWN

Only Nineteen of Them Emerged from a Ton of the Louisiana Moss

(Associated Press)
NEW ORLEANS, March 8.—Reports from Constantinople that Turkey had called all Moslems to the colors checked the advance in cotton today.

Selling increased on the telegrams from Tallulah, La., stating that the government laboratory at that place had announced that the survival of the boll weevils was 19 to the ton of moss against 127 last year.

March notices for about 1,000 bales circulated through the morning causing liquidation in that position. Late in the morning May was off to 30.80 with the list 7 points higher to 8 points lower than the close of yesterday.

Selling continued in the afternoon and the decline in cotton was widened but only moderately as the market got more or less support which many brokers considered due to trade buying. May traded as low as 30.72 with prices of the more active months 1 to 22 points under the finale of yesterday.

New York Lower
NEW YORK, March 8.—Reports that boll weevil emergence from hibernation was much lighter this year than last at the Louisiana stations were probably a factor in the early afternoon decline to 30.13 for May and 26.60 for October or 9 to 25 points net lower on the general list. This was checked by renewed covering, however, and the market was several points up from the lowest around 2 o'clock with July relatively firm.

Corn Weak on Close
CHICAGO, March 8.—Trading was mostly in the nature of eveninging up to prepare for the government report. Prices closed weak at the same as yesterday's finish to 3-8 cents lower with May 73 3-4 73 7-8 cents.

Sugar Unchanged
NEW YORK, March 8.—The raw sugar market was firm and unchanged early today at 5 1-2 for Cubas, cost and freight, equal to 7.28 for centrifugal. No fresh business was reported and holders were asking 1-8 cents advent.

Raw sugar futures were more active and prices were higher on covering and scattered commission house buying, prompted by the firmness of the spot market and rumors of bullish private crop advice.

The market for refined was quiet and prices were unchanged at 8.75 to 9.15 for fine granulated.

QUART OF WATER CLEANS KIDNEYS

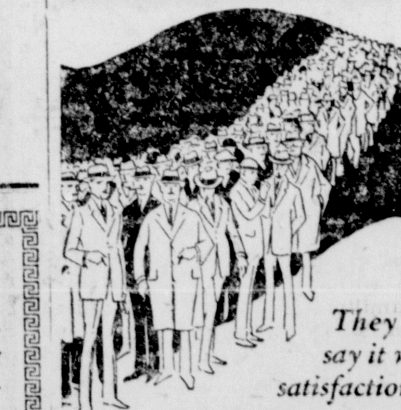

Take a Little Salts if Your Back Hurts, or Bladder Is Troubling You

No man or woman can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well known authority. Eating too much rich food creates acid, which excites the kidneys. They become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood. Then we get sick. Rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders often come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys, or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, begin drinking a quart of water each day also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may act fine.

This famous salts is made from acid of grapes and lemon juice combined with lithia and has been used for years to flush and stimulate the kidneys; also to help neutralize the acids in the system so they no longer cause irritation thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which everyone should take now and then to help keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby softening and avoiding serious kidney complications. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

They all say it with satisfaction—

WILDCATS GOING GOOD IN PRACTICE

Paris High Has a Team Which Is Capable of Copping the State Cup Again

After winning State championship last season, the Paris High baseball squad is out again in full swing.

Several afternoons have been warm enough to permit the boys to practice and yesterday found the team rounding into good form.

With Haynes fully recovered from an operation the pitching staff is looking fine with Nance, Shonte, Pate, Sandlin, Apple, Crumley and Haynes on the list.

Lemaster, brother of Kyle of the T. and O. league, is working hard for catcher's position. Sherley is no slouch behind the bat and should develop into a good catcher.

John Gilliam, a fast infielder and a consistent hitter from the Forest Chapel team and formerly with Paris High, has claimed third base.

Hawkins looks to be the fastest shortstop on the field and with consistent workouts will no doubt fill that position.

Beville of Petty looks to be the best bet for second base and really has no opposition if McGlasson is permanently shifted to right field where he looked good yesterday.

Since the matrimonial entanglements of our first baseman, Howard has selected that corner and plays a pretty game.

Two of last year's regulars, Lindsay and Russell, are coveting near the outer boards and have no real opposition.

About ten games are scheduled. These are with Texarkana, Whitesboro, Bonham and Mt. Pleasant. The complete schedule will be announced at an early date.

FULBRIGHT MAN SEVERELY BURNED

His Left Foot and Leg May Have to Be Treated to Skin Grafting

Visitors from Fulbright, Red River county, stated that Edgar Hooker, a well known citizen of the community, who was burned in a coal oil explosion a few nights ago was improving very slowly, and that the burns were more serious than was at first reported. A negro woman employed by the family had lighted the coal oil stove in the bathroom and went out in the yard to look at the moon while it was in eclipse.

She had left the wick turned up too high and while it was blazing Hooker ran to pick it up and throw it out doors. Just as he took hold of it it exploded.

He was burned on the left leg and foot and on the left arm and right hand. The floor had been freshly painted with a heavy coat of paint and had become boiling hot. He was in his bare feet when he ran forward to throw the stove out and he stepped in the hot paint, which took all of the skin off of the sole of his foot.

It is said that it will require considerable time for the burns to heal and that he will have to have some skin grafted on his foot and leg.

Motor Vehicle Tax Bill
The Sackett motor vehicle license bill was finally passed in the senate today by a vote of 15 to 10. The bill was not debated before final passage, several corrective amendments being adopted without discussion. The bill now goes to the house for concurrence in senate amendments. It increases motor license fees approximately 100 per cent from the present scale.

Standard Oil Investigation
The senate committee on State affairs today returned to the senate a favorable report on the Winfree house resolution calling for an investigation into the operations of oil companies in Texas, particularly the matter of price fixing and the relation of oil firms to the Standard Oil company. The committee has had the resolution under consideration for more than two weeks.

Deadlock on Oil Tax Bill
The deadlock which has existed between senate and house conference committees on the gross production oil tax bill remained unbroken at adjournment tonight.

A motion of the house representatives is said to have favored a compromise at 2 1/2 per cent, but such agreement was not reached.

The bill as passed in the house places a tax at 3 per cent, while it was amended in the senate to 2 per cent.

ED SIMS AFTER BROOKLYN CLUB

Texas Oil Magnate Said to Have Offered Half a Million for Franchise

(Associated Press)
NEW YORK, March 8.—Ed Sims, wealthy oil operator and turf man, has offered $500,000 for the Brooklyn National league baseball club through W. Rossiter Redmond, Brooklyn lawyer, according to the Brooklyn Daily Eagle today.

When he returned from Europe last month Ebbs told his friends "I am getting too old for baseball," and said he would sell just as soon as he received a reasonable proposal.

Mr. Sims conducts the Lexington stables on the Metropolitan tracks and owns upwards of 500 horses. He is known to have been anxious to break into baseball for several years. At the time when Colonel Huston of the New York Yankees was reported to be willing to sell his interests in that club Sims is said to have entered into preliminary negotiations for the Yankees.

In addition to buying the Brooklyn club's franchise and players, Mr. Sims is willing to lease Ebbs field, which was built several years ago, at a cost of $700,000.

ST. "I offered Henry a whole lot more money than some major league stars are getting," Quinn added. Henry, who won 20 and lost 4 games last season for Mobile, is demanding $4200 and it has been stated that the Browns offered him $3300.

DEPORT PUPILS TO GIVE RECITAL

School Is Entering on Seventh Month and the Honor Roll Shows Increase

DEPORT, Texas, March 8.—Because of the rainy weather, the school has had no recesses and has only given 45 minutes for the noon period. Teachers and pupils find this a little tiresome, but it is possibly a better arrangement than that of allowing the children to be out in the mud and rain during the intermissions. With the coming of spring we hope to be able to give the full length of time at all intermissions.

Through the kindness of the school board school was dismissed last Friday afternoon to allow the teachers to attend the Northeast Texas Teachers Association at Paris. The lectures given at this meeting were very inspiring, especially that of Dr. Musselman of Dallas. Two points stressed by Dr. Musselman in his advice to the teachers were that the teachers should make every effort to give good service and that in all school policies the benefit to the child should be the only consideration.

Last Monday morning was the beginning of the seventh school month. This ends the sixth month of free school provided for the children transferred to Deport from the surrounding school districts. It may seem rather unfair to the parents of these children that they should be forced to pay tuition after having transferred the State money of their children to this district, yet as was pointed out by a member of the school board to one of these parents it is only the State money that the school district receives from the adjoining districts. The per capita apportionment for this year really does not pay for the six months of school already provided for the transfers. In the most districts from which we have received transfers the State money and all the special tax money levied by the district is needed to run a six or seven months school.

Since our district receives none of this special tax from any of the districts it seems only fair that the parents of transferred children should help to pay for the added expense. This argument is more forceful when we remember that there are some sixty transfers now in school and that they require the services of two teachers more than would be needed for the scholars living in the Deport district alone.

These conditions could be partially relieved if two or three of these nearby districts consolidated themselves with our district. The teachers in these schools could then easily teach the first six or seven grades in the elementary school and those students ready for high school could attend the Deport high school without paying tuition. The days of the consolidated schools are fast approaching and those communities that are first to take advantage of the opportunities offered by such a school are pretty sure to be the most prosperous in the future. Of course these advantages do not become apparent within a year or two, but will be most noticeable in the next generation.

The honor roll for the school for the past month is as follows: Second grade: Mary Bell Roberts, James Threadgill, B. C. Eady, Emily Ruth Webb, James Doyle Lawler.

Third grade: Virginia Kilsay, Francis Franks, Margaret Webb, Bruce Bird and Bernice Grant.

Fourth grade: Mattie Lee Robinson, Elizabeth Nobles, Zula Sullivan, Walter Nobles, Gordon Fleming.

Fifth grade: Eddie Lou Short and Lowell Campbell.

Sixth grade: Vivian Elder, Myrtle Evelyn Holloway, Rae Grant, Pauline Denson, Eula Barnes and Hugh Jeffress.

The increased length of the honor roll for the last month was for the most part due to the greater effort put forth by the students whose names appear on the roll. Considering the fact that these pupils have made almost perfect grades in all subjects and in deportment, we know that they are entitled to have their names appear before the public in this manner.

J. W. Spears is having a slaughtering pen erected about a quarter of a mile southwest of town.

Miss Fisher is preparing her expression class for a recital to be given in the near future. The little folks in this class are doing some splendid work and a large part of the benefit they receive is the ability to progress more rapidly in the regular school work.

Mrs. John G. Wright went to Paris Wednesday to have her throat treated.

E. O. Fry of Brookston was in Deport on business on Wednesday.

Health is very good just now. Most everyone has entirely recovered from the flu and is enjoying good health again.

The farmers were getting anxious on account of the incessant rains, but are feeling better now since we are having a little sunshine.

Miss Brown Dodson spent the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Dodson.

CORN PLANTING DELTA COUNTY

Farmers Are Busy in Getting the Crop in Despite the Heavy Soil

COOPER, March 8.—Corn planting is the order of the day with the farmers that have ground dry enough to plant. Those that can not work in the fields are getting in a supply of wood for spring and incidentally placing a few hooks in the creeks while they get out the wood. So far no new fish stories have appeared.

The opera "Polished Pebbles," put on in the auditorium of the high school building by Miss Bess Hendricks and Mrs. Berry for the benefit of the school library by local talent Thursday night was well attended. The different parts were played well, the songs and music being especially good.

Cooper fight fans want to see their favorite Wolf Lowry take on another victim and have arranged for one Battling Brumley of Sulphur Springs to try to stop the Wolf from howling. The Sulphur Springs fans have about the same confidence in the champ from the land of elbertas as the local fans have in the champ from the land of cotton; consequently a good bout is assured. Lowry weighs 144, Brumley 138. Both have out-grown home artists and are anxious to put on the show. A battle royal and good prelims are in the making. The program is for the benefit of the Red Henderson post of the American Legion and March 15 is the date set. Manager Sparks of the Grand and Gem theaters has turned the Gem over to the fans for the occasion.

The farmers were getting anxious on account of the incessant rains, but are feeling better now since we are having a little sunshine.

The school is planting a school garden this week. Nothing better illustrates the practical means employed by a wide-awake teacher to enlist the co-operation of the home to increase the interests of pupils and to afford practical education not only by doing something worthwhile, but by stimulating mental activity in virtually every branch of elementary school work, than the introduction into the curriculum of school gardening. It is not necessary to point out the many strong features it presents, such as improved health of the children, increased vivacity and interest in the work, not to mention the vast number of educational features it presents. The teacher has offered a dollar gold piece to the one who makes the best garden. Each student has absolute control of his products; he may sell or eat them.

The school has also decorated the entire grounds with beautiful flowers, and trees have been planted also.

Three racks for vaulting and jumping have been erected.

The influenza has entirely skipped us and everyone is in the best of health and good spirits.

A Sunday school will be organized Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock by the school teacher. Come—the date, March 11.
